

AECO REGIONAL COVID-19 UPDATE

Disclaimer: Please note that this overview has been created by scanning relevant government websites and news sources and reflect the information that has been detected by AECO at the time of compiling the overview. The overview may contain errors and outdated information. This overview is intended to be used for guidance only, to assist AECO members in their efforts to navigate developments related to COVID-19.

NORWAY Mainland

Last update: Feb. 12, 2022 (Link)

Entry requirements, official travel recommendations, cruise regulations and local recommendations
Before traveling	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All entrance requirements are lifted• Vaccinated and unvaccinated travelers can enter Svalbard
After arrival	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All restrictions are lifted
For cruise ships	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All restrictions are lifted
Local recommendations	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All regulatory measures are lifted• Adults are recommended to get tested for COVID-19 if they develop new respiratory symptoms.• If positive to COVID 19, the recommendation to adults is to stay home for 4 days

AECO REGIONAL COVID-19 UPDATE

Disclaimer: Please note that this overview has been created by scanning relevant government websites and news sources and reflect the information that has been detected by AECO at the time of compiling the overview. The overview may contain errors and outdated information. This overview is intended to be used for guidance only, to assist AECO members in their efforts to navigate developments related to COVID-19.

SVALBARD

Last update: March 01, 2022 (Link in Norwegian)

Entry requirements, official travel recommendations, cruise regulations and local recommendations
Before traveling	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All entrance requirements are lifted• Vaccinated and unvaccinated travelers can enter Svalbard
After arrival	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All restrictions are lifted
For cruise ships	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Governor can impose a ban on landing on Svalbard in certain situations. The Norwegian government is currently assessing the current regulations to be able to react to infection situations.
Local recommendations/restrictions	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Unvaccinated people are advised to be careful when traveling to Svalbard• All regulatory measures are lifted: no more mandatory mask, 1m-distance, isolation• Adults are recommended to get tested for COVID-19 if they develop new respiratory symptoms.• If positive to COVID 19, the recommendation to adults is to stay home for 4 days

AECO REGIONAL COVID-19 UPDATE

Disclaimer: Please note that this overview has been created by scanning relevant government websites and news sources and reflect the information that has been detected by AECO at the time of compiling the overview. The overview may contain errors and outdated information. This overview is intended to be used for guidance only, to assist AECO members in their efforts to navigate developments related to COVID-19.

ICELAND

Last update: Feb. 25. 2022

Restrictions: Link and recommendations: Link

Entry requirements, official travel recommendations, cruise regulations and local recommendations
Before traveling	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All entrance requirements are lifted• Vaccinated and unvaccinated travelers can enter Iceland
After arrival	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All restrictions are lifted
For cruise ships	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All restrictions are lifted
Local recommendations/restrictions	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All restrictions are lifted• People are advised to be cautious and careful.• If positive to COVID 19, people are recommended to stay home for 5 days after the diagnosis

AECO REGIONAL COVID-19 UPDATE

Disclaimer: Please note that this overview has been created by scanning relevant government websites and news sources and reflect the information that has been detected by AECO at the time of compiling the overview. The overview may contain errors and outdated information. This overview is intended to be used for guidance only, to assist AECO members in their efforts to navigate developments related to COVID-19.

GREENLAND

Last update March 02, 2022 (Link)

Vaccination is required to travel to Greenland

Full vaccination in Greenland:

- 14 days after you have completed a full vaccination program (e.g. two doses of Pfizer or Moderna or one dose of Johnson&Johnson).
- No upper limit as to how long a person is considered fully vaccinated.
- No requirement for a booster vaccine to be considered fully vaccinated.

Approved vaccines:

- Comirnaty (Pfizer)
- Vaxzevria (Astra Zeneca)
- Novavax Nuvaxovid
- Spikevax (Moderna)
- Janssen (Johnson & Johnson)

Entry requirements, official travel recommendations, cruise regulations and local recommendations

Before traveling	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A full vaccination certificate (see the criteria in the table above) EXCEPTION: children under 12 years old
After arrival	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All restrictions are lifted
For cruise ships	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All restrictions are lifted
Local recommendations	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• General advice to be cautious and considerate• Adults are recommended to test if they develop Covid-like symptoms• If positive test, recommendation to stay home for 4 days after test date

AECO REGIONAL COVID-19 UPDATE

Disclaimer: Please note that this overview has been created by scanning relevant government websites and news sources and reflect the information that has been detected by AECO at the time of compiling the overview. The overview may contain errors and outdated information. This overview is intended to be used for guidance only, to assist AECO members in their efforts to navigate developments related to COVID-19.

CANADA

Last update: Feb. 28, 2022 Link

Entrance requirements for passengers: link

For cruise chips: March 7, 2022 link

Vaccination is required to travel to Canada

Full vaccination in Canada:

- Full series of a vaccine or a combination of vaccines accepted by Canada
- Last dose received at least 14 days before traveling to Canada

Approved vaccines:

- AstraZeneca/COVISHIELD (ChAdOx1-S, Vaxzevria, AZD1222)
- Bharat Biotech (Covaxin, BBV152 A, B, C)
- Janssen/Johnson & Johnson
- Moderna (mRNA-1273)
- Novavax (NVX-COV2373, Nuvaxovid, Covovax)
- Pfizer-BioNTech (Comirnaty, tozinameran, BNT162b2)
- Sinopharm BIBP (BBIBP-CorV)
- Sinovac (CoronaVac, PiCoVacc)

AECO REGIONAL COVID-19 UPDATE

Disclaimer: Please note that this overview has been created by scanning relevant government websites and news sources and reflect the information that has been detected by AECO at the time of compiling the overview. The overview may contain errors and outdated information. This overview is intended to be used for guidance only, to assist AECO members in their efforts to navigate developments related to COVID-19.

Entry requirements, official travel recommendations, cruise regulations and local recommendations

Before traveling by air or by car

- Check the eligibility to enter Canada at: <https://travel.gc.ca/travel-covid/travel-restrictions/wizard-start>
- Check the vaccination requirements (See the criteria in the table above)
- Submit the required COVID-19 information into ArrivaCAN prior to travel: <https://www.canada.ca/en/public-health/services/diseases/coronavirus-disease-covid-19/arrivecan.html>
- Be asymptomatic upon arrival
- Have a paper or a digital copy of proof of vaccination (English or French certified translation)
- Have a suitable quarantine plan, in case it is required.
- Within the day before arrival in Canada or prior to scheduled departure of flight to Canada:
 - A COVID-19 rapid antigen test, authorized by the country where the test was bought and administered by a laboratory, healthcare entity or telehealth service.
 - OR a molecular test result, taken within 72h before arrival.
 - OR a proof of a positive molecular test result from the previous 10 – 180 days.
 - Entering the information in ArriveCAN
- Pre-register for arrival testing before flying to Canada: <https://travel.gc.ca/travel-covid/travel-restrictions/arrival-testing-providers>
- CHILDREN: Unvaccinated children under 12 years and 4 months of age do not require a COVID-19 test result to travel within or depart Canada.

AECO REGIONAL COVID-19 UPDATE

Disclaimer: Please note that this overview has been created by scanning relevant government websites and news sources and reflect the information that has been detected by AECO at the time of compiling the overview. The overview may contain errors and outdated information. This overview is intended to be used for guidance only, to assist AECO members in their efforts to navigate developments related to COVID-19.

	What you need to enter into ArriveCAN: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identification, including your passport or other travel documents• Contact & travel information• 14-day travel history• Quarantine plan• Confirmation of a negative pre-entry test (or positive test taken 10-180 days before to travel)• Proof of vaccination (must be in English or French, or a certified translation)• COVID-19 symptom self-assessment
At the border	Travelers will be randomly selected for arrival testing. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Required documents:<ul style="list-style-type: none">- ArriveCAN receipt- COVID-19 rapid antigen test result, authorized by the country where the test was bought and administered by a laboratory, healthcare entity or telehealth service.- Proof of vaccination (paper or digital files)• Answer all eligibility, vaccination and health screening questions.• If you have symptoms, follow the instructions provided by the government representative.• Follow the handout given to you at time of entry and all additional federal, provincial/territorial and local public health measures, including:<ul style="list-style-type: none">- wear a mask,- maintain a list of contacts for the 14 days after entry to Canada- exercise extra precautions by avoiding high- risk settings such as long-term care facilities.

AECO REGIONAL COVID-19 UPDATE

Disclaimer: Please note that this overview has been created by scanning relevant government websites and news sources and reflect the information that has been detected by AECO at the time of compiling the overview. The overview may contain errors and outdated information. This overview is intended to be used for guidance only, to assist AECO members in their efforts to navigate developments related to COVID-19.

After arrival	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Travelers arriving from another country than the US: Answer compliance verification calls from the Government of Canada.• Follow the handout given to you at time of entry and all additional federal, provincial/territorial and local public health measures, including:<ul style="list-style-type: none">- wear a mask,- maintain a list of contacts for the 14 days after entry to Canada- exercise extra precautions by avoiding high- risk settings such as long-term care facilities.• If you test positive, develop symptoms, or are exposed to someone with signs and symptoms of COVID-19 during the next 14 days:<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Isolate for 10 days from the time the positive test was taken, the start of symptoms, or starting the day of exposure.- Contact the Public Health Agency of Canada at 1-833-641-0343 within 24 hours.
For cruise ships	Cruise lines will be required to adhere to a strict health framework with three major components: 1. COVID-19 management plans Measures to prevent or limit the introduction and/or spread onboard cruise ships, which include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Pre-boarding measures to prevent transmission of COVID-19;• Measures to prevent transmission of COVID-19 onboard;• Measures to prevent transmission during shore excursions and port visits;• Measures to isolate suspected and/or confirmed cases of COVID-19; and• Preparedness and response for suspected and/or confirmed cases of COVID-19. 2. Ship-to-Shore checklist Measures to prevent or limit the spread of COVID-19 during the onboarding and disembarking of passengers at a port. These are to be agreed to by operators, ports, and local public health representatives, and must account for:

AECO REGIONAL COVID-19 UPDATE

Disclaimer: Please note that this overview has been created by scanning relevant government websites and news sources and reflect the information that has been detected by AECO at the time of compiling the overview. The overview may contain errors and outdated information. This overview is intended to be used for guidance only, to assist AECO members in their efforts to navigate developments related to COVID-19.

- A COVID-19 management plan, which includes an outbreak management plan;
- Mask use and physical distancing according to local/provincial health guidelines;
- Hygiene measures, cleaning, and disinfecting; and
- Staff education and training.

3. Testing and reporting requirements

Under the Quarantine, Isolation and Other Obligations Order, the Prohibition of Entry Order, and the Transport Canada Interim Order, cruise lines and passengers will need to adhere to strict requirements for testing at key checkpoints, and are required to report back to the Government of Canada.

- Crew and passengers must be fully vaccinated against COVID-19
EXCEPTION: Children under 12 and medical contraindication. Religion belief only for Canadians.
- Crew and passengers are required to self-monitor for symptoms
- Passengers must take a COVID-19 molecular test within 72-hours before boarding a cruise ship
OR take an antigen test within one day of boarding a cruise ship
- Passengers must take a COVID-19 molecular test within 72-hours before arriving in Canada
OR an antigen test within one day of the scheduled arrival.

AECO REGIONAL COVID-19 UPDATE

Disclaimer: Please note that this overview has been created by scanning relevant government websites and news sources and reflect the information that has been detected by AECO at the time of compiling the overview. The overview may contain errors and outdated information. This overview is intended to be used for guidance only, to assist AECO members in their efforts to navigate developments related to COVID-19.

CANADA - NUNAVUT

Regulations specific to Nunavut here.

Vaccination is required for travel within and out of Canada

Entry requirements, official travel recommendations, cruise regulations and local recommendations
Entering Nunavut	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Proof of vaccination certificate
Leaving Nunavut	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Leaving from, or connecting through, Iqaluit airport: proof of vaccination certificate.• Leaving from Rankin Inlet or Cambridge Bay:<ul style="list-style-type: none">- No documentation is required to fly out of Nunavut from Rankin Inlet or Cambridge Bay.- A proof of vaccination certificate is required if Yellowknife or Winnipeg are NOT the final travel destinations
In case of positive test	Vaccinated travelers who test positive will be required to isolate under federal guidelines before being allowed to board a plane. The Government of Nunavut is no longer providing out of territory isolation and travelers will be responsible for their own isolation costs.
Local restrictions	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Masks are mandatory• Libraries, museums, and galleries capacity restricted to 25 people or 50 per cent capacity, whichever is less. Group tours limited to 10 people.• Outdoor gatherings limited to 50 people.